

SUMMARY

President's Executive Interchange Program

- Advisory panel appointed by President Johnson to study how Interchange Program could be developed. September 1968
- President's Commission on Personnel Interchange established, Executive Order 11451, President Nixon. September 1969
- Program Goals:
 - to achieve better understanding between Government and the private sector
 - to exchange new and effective management techniques
 - to enhance professional growth of middle management executives
 - to develop a group of experienced executives available for future government service
- Program Participation:

1970-1971	19 from industry, 11 from government
1971-1972	24 from industry, 8 from government
1972-1973	60 from industry, 20 from government
GOAL 1973-1974	60 from industry, 60 from government
- Standards for Selection:
 - should have a proven record of management ability
 - has the potential to become a senior executive in the sponsoring organization
 - usually in the 30 to 40 age bracket
 - generally GS-15 or higher
 - nomination must be approved by Department/Agency head
- Some Participating Companies: AETNA, American Can, American Standard, AT&T, Arthur Andersen, Arthur Young, Burroughs, Bendix, General Electric, IBM, Ford, Chrysler, General Motors, Rockwell International, TRW System, Bank of America, Smith, Kline and French, Exxon, United Aircraft, IT&T, Mobil Oil, Phillips Petroleum.